Samuel Ernest Lawry was son of Thomas Shepherd Lawry & Elizabeth Ann Deeble Lawry.

Sam was born in Park City, Utah on 23 Dec 1888.

Thomas S. Lawry had a store in Park City, and when it burned down (19 June 1898), they moved to Benjamin Norris Property & bought Benny Norris out.

Samuel went to World War I. in the Army. Before he left, he burried what gold he had on the old Family Farm, in Jordanelle.

When he came home, he could not find it. Some say that someone saw him bury it & came & dug it up.

He lived in the old Thomas E Lawry 2-storied lumber home, & commonly Known as the Sam E. Lawry hermitage.

There is a canyon immediately north of Flag Butte known as "Sam's Canyon." It has a spring high in that Canyon that flows down that Canyon

Sam used to walk over the West Hills into Park City for his groceries, & back.

From Nile Morris 6-30-87 Sam Lawry

Long white Beard
No drinking water in the house
No lights No Tel. — only candle afraid he would burn house down
always cold —
Became near blind
He had very nice facial features
under that white beard.
Joe Morris took him to town many x
for groceries.
Sometimes he would walk over the hill to Park City for groceries & back.
